HARVARD COACHES DEVOTE TIME TO DEFENSE

'MORAL' VICTORY FOR CRIMSON SEEN IF YALE IS TIED

Tad · Jones Will Send Unchanged Line-Up Against Chief Rival.

By SIDNEY B. WHIPPLE.

EW YORK, Nov. 16. — Yale, tumb-New Haven bowl for the last time ended her train-but determined to fight for at least an even break on Saturday, is continuing the grilling workouts on Soldiers' Field, coaches forcing the team to drill almost to the last minute in an endeavor to build up a defense against what appears to be one of the most formidable attacking units on any Eastern grid-on. The best the Crimson looks for is A tie will be a moral vic-And perhaps the knowledge fory. And perhaps the knowledge of ER's superiority may be just the thing needed to instill the fighting spirit in the Cambridge men, a spirit hich has been surprisingly lacking through the doleful series of de-feats and ties just past.

Yale, for the first time in years.

Yale, for the first time in years.

TECH TEAM WINS work of Tad Jones, who has com-pletely reorganized the coaching, fraining and playing system at New Haven, working with material which, at the outer, looked far worse than Harvard's, has the opportunity in her grasp to win the championship of the big three. If the wins from Harvard there are those who will say the has won the championship of the East, but this will be a matter of wide dispute. Yale's schedule has been far easier than that of Penn State, for in-stance, and her work has not been so impressive as any one of half a dozen Ec teams which rejoice in a clea ng of victories.

Jones intends to send practically the same line-up against Harvard with which he defeated Princeton. Reports of the disability of three of his men, received with some satis faction at Harvard, are apparently

Percy Haughton has joined the forces at Cambridge for last-minute advice and assistance to Bob Fisher. and special attention is being paid to Charlie Buell, the dropkicker who is dangerous whenever the ball gets within striking distance of the emy's goal posts

Final Drill in Bowl Held by Yale Eleven

NEW HAVEN, Conn. Nov. 16 -This afternoon Yale's final football practice was held in the Yale Bowl. and an atmosphere of cheerfulness pervaded the squad. There was a dummy scrimmage with the varsity line up as it will probably start the Harvard game, with the exception of the fact that Qualle was at right tackle in place of Diller. The rest of the line-up was: Into, left tackle: Cruikshank, left guard; Landls, center; Guernsey, right guard; Landls, center; Guernsey, right guard; Landls, center; Guernsey, right guard; Sturm, right end; O'Hearn, quarter: Aldrich, left halfback; Jordan, right lalfback; Mallory, fullback. and an atmosphere of cheerfulness halfback; Mallory, fullback.

Following the dummy scrimmage the scrubs cheered the varsity and the varsity cheered the scrubs. The graduate players on the field were lacked consistency and never George Goss, Jack Cates and Burr trated the Tech 30-yard line.

be a big student demonstration at the train to see the team on its way, and Saturday most of the under-graduates as well as the whole of the scrub squad will go up to Cam-

KANAWHAS AFTER 125-POUND TITLE

Kanawha A. C. is out to cop the 155-pound football championship of 125-pound football championship of the District. Unable to find opponents in their own class, the Kanawhas have been meeting 135 and 140-pound teams with great success. The St. Theresa Preps. outweighing the Kanawha boys by ten pounds to the man. were barely able to squeeze out a 6-to-5 victors. Any 125-pound claimants for the championship can get plenty of action by communicating with Manager H. E. Keane, North 224, after 6 p. m.

Washington Pros Face Mountaineers Sunday

Clarksburg, W. Va., football pro fessionals will oppose Washington at American League Park this Sunday, putting an all-collegiate team on the field. Nearly all of the play-ers are alumni of West Virginia

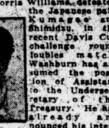

Local fans will remember Beck. Local lans will remember Beck, fullback for West Virginia Wesleyan last year, and Lentz, of West Virginia University, both of whom are playing in the backfield for the Clarksturg eleven. A heavy and powerful line is possessed by the

The team is well supplied with strong reserves, and the second team is considered nearly as good as the first. In four games played

Joins D.C.Rank

A preminent addition to local

A preminent addition to local tennis circles has been made by the arrival of Watson M. Washura who with Norris Williams, defeated the Japanese pair, k u may a and Shimidau. In the recent Davis Cup challenge yound toubles match. Washburn has assumed the position of Assistant to the Undergeoretary of the Fressury. He has also secured Third Baseman Willie for the same club, according to remove care a member of one of the clubs devoted exclusively to tennis.

Washburn first achieved prominence in 1818 and 1911 by winning the Chumbis miterachinate to tunnis.

Washburn first achieved prominence in 1818 and 1911 by winning the Chumbis miterachinate to tunnis.

Washburn first achieved prominence in 1818 and 1911 by winning the Columbis miterachinate to tunnis.

This is the most interesting im of news going the rounds in man captain and played for three was freshman captain and played for three possible the fact that he failed to make good with the Yankees.

This is the most interesting im of news going the rounds in the A. B. F. championship in 1919 in France. Subsequently he representative and where he reached the semi-duals. In 1920 he was chosen a member of the Davis Cup team that went to sent the Davis Cup team that went to sent the Davis Cup team that went to stroke and a remarkable ability for the coast there appears to be conceal direction.

Washington is fortunate in now having among its residents the coast there appears to be conceal direction.

conceal direction.

Washington is fortunate in now having among its residents the denor of the Davis Cup, Dwight F. Davis, and one of its foremost defenders. With two such celebrities on the scene there is every indication that the court game will be pomnext summer as never before.

135-POUND TITLE

Charlie Pugh Scores All the Points in 9-to-0 Win Over Central.

Charlie Pugh, of the famous Pugh lan at Tech High School, yester-lay won the championship of the 35-pound team series for Tech. defeating Central's lightweight eleven by booting a field goal and scoring a touchdown. Score, 9 to 0. Pugh was substituted for Gooch in the opening period when Tech had the ball in striking distance of the Central's goal line. An exthe Central's goal line. An ex-change of punts gave the ball to Tech on Central's 23-yard line. Two ine bucks netted little gain, so Pugh the crossbar for a 3-pointer and Tech's first score.

The Manual Trainers walked white during the first quarter and for most of the second. First And crushed Ohio State.

by Marshall on the Central 35-yard line. From there the ball was taken to the 14-yard line on two Aldrich, left halfback; Jordan, right halfback; Mallory, fullback. revived in the youngsters as they swept Tech down the field at diffirst downs. However, their attack lacked consistency and never pene-

Chamberlin.

The scrub banquet was held tonight at the Taft Hotel, with speecnes by Coaches Tad Jones. Dr. Bilty mun and Charley Taft.

The Yale football team, substitutes, coaches and trainers will leave tomorrow afternoon for Cambridge for the final game of the year Saturday against Harvard. There will be a big student demonsfration at the train to see the team on its way, and right halfback, with Harper proved to be the best ground gain-ers for the blue and White. The former possesses much speed and the scrub squad will go up to Cambridge for the match.

The squad will have signal practice at 1:30 in the Stadium. center, playing behind the line on the defense, backed up the for-wards excellently and made nearly a score tackles.	100

The line-up and summary:
Tech. Pos.	Centra
Marshall	Bar
LoftusL. T	Mur
Heindrich L. G	Wat
Thiel Center	Gonz
Tehan	Н
Parker
Meyers
Booth Q. B	.B. John
Harwood
Whyte R. H. B
Gooch F. B
Score by periods:

(40-) and lime). Supertrutions: Feed.—C. Pugin for Gooch; Gooch for Harwood; Harwood for Booth; Central—Workey for Davis. Offi-cials: Referee, Guyon (Carlisle); umpire— Harmon (Bethany); headlinesman, Keliay (Holy Cross). Time of periods, ten min-

Georges' Breakdown

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Cabled advices from France today announcing that Georges Carpentier had cancelled his bout with George Cook, scheduled to be held in London December 9 hecause he had suffered a physical breakdown, were discredited by Tex Richard. The promoter believes the reports are grossly exaggerated, and that if the French flash chose to cancel his engage. fiash chose to cancel his engage-ment with the Australian boxer he had some reason other than physical team is considered nearly as good as the first. In four games played the Clarksburg aggregation has come out victor each time, scoring 110 points to 3 for their opponents and 60 first downs to 1 for the opposition.

Washington players realize that they are in for a game equally as hard as the tilt with Syracuse last Sunday. Coach Hegarty has his squad out every evening training hard for this combat.

The Roland A. C. eleven wants games with any 95-pound teams in the District. Manager Albert Kosack can be reached at 321 C street northeast.

Additional some reason other than physical defects.

Rickard received a letter from Gus Wilson, the trainer of Carpentier, several days ago, in which Wilson reported Carpentier physically fit and told how the French champion was training for his bout with Coek. Incidentally Wilson explained that Carpentier right hand, which he injured in his bout with Dempsey in Jersey City last July, is now entirely mended and that he was using it freely during his training stunts with Battling Marco.

The letter from Gus Wilson to Carpentier.

Davis Cup Star Draft Fight Slated When Minors Meet in Buffalo

Not only has the Tiger boss landed the shortfielder, but he has also secured Third Baseman Willie Kamm and Pitcher Frank O'Doul of the same club, according to reports. Kamm is a whale of a bateman and O'Deul is seen as a comer despite the fact that he falled to make good with the Yankees.

This is the most interesting itm of news going the rounds in baseball directs, but business will despite the fact that he failed to make good with the Yankees.

This is the most interesting itm of news going the rounds in baseball circles, but business will be more lively when the miner leagues hold their annual convention in Buffalo on December 5.

Prasident Griffith has made all arrangaments to hob-nob with the bush league representative and may probably induige in a few deals. Reports have it that magnates from the Weat are making plans to unload a dozen high-class players they had hoped to self last summer.

One of the big arguments in Buffalo will probably hinge on the draft and there is said to be a movement on foot to bring about a restoration of this rule. On the coast there appears to be draft, but Jack Dunn in Baltlit to a finish. Dunn's stand has had a bad effect on the International League which has become a cons-club organization. The Orioleshave formed a habit of winning looks far more leaded to the majors. This time he will pastime for the Cincinnati Reds. In view of the fact that Babe is a third-sacker, it appears that Pat Moran is preparing for the expected loss of Groh.

"Give me a first-sacker and I'll have a ball team," said Connie Mack last year. He's tried a flock of them all have a ball team," said Connie Mack last year. He's tried a flock of them all have formed a habit of winning have formed a habit of winning consciude organization. The Orioles have formed a habit of winning and will probably do so as long as their stars can be retained. Signs of a revolt among the Birds was noted during the post-season series with Louisville, however, when it was reported that Dunn was forced to threaten to the season series of the season series with Louisville, however, when it was reported that Dunn was forced to threaten to the A's.

another year.

Baltimore has a number of men who would do well in fast company and it is only a question of time until those players reach a point when they will sigh for the brighter lights of the major circuits. In fact, they appear to have reached that point already.

The Real All-American.

And tore along through Yale. You passed Michigan

You'll mope within your den, dropped back and lifted the nigskin For bucking Calculus old top. The boy who gives 'em all the flop, Is something else again.

for most of the second. First addressed only state. And crushed Ohio State. You tossed Devine across the line read four for Tech and three for Central. Central was weak on the defense in this part of the game. Tech's touchdown came the second period. Central was held and forced to punt. Allie Johnson's attempt was blocked and recovered by Marshall on the Central 35-yard ment. Hutchison cleaned up in the

ON NEW GOLF CLUB

Course Will Be Laid Out Near Silver Spring, Maryland.

The Silver Spring Golf Club will be the name of the latest organization of its kind to be organized in Washington.

piece of land just northeast of Silver Spring, Md., and Donald Ross, of Pinehurst, one of the leading course architects in the country, will be in charge of the construction. Mr. Ross was a recent visitor in Washington, and pronounced the land ex-cellently suited for the purposes. Work will be started within the next month, and it is expected to have the course ready for play next summer.

The 200 acres is rolling country, and will need few artificial features to equip the course with needed

George B. Frazer, of the Washing-ton Post, has been named temporary chairman of the organization for the new club until permanent officers are elected. Applications for mem-bership are already being received by the temporary chairman.

Hyattsville Plays Brentwood Sunday

Hyattsville and Brentwood football teams will meet in Zantzinger's Park, Hyattsville, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Thanksgiving Day card in the Maryland town is Hyattsville VS. Sark Pleasers

Roy Mackert Joins Conshohocken Team

Roy Mackert, Maryland football star and all-South Atlantic fulfback in 1920, will be seen in so more games with the Washraten professional eleven this car unless all signs fall, Elected captain of the team earlier in the year, he has not seen action since the first game or two.

The reason is that he has received a big offer to play on Saturdays with the Conshoshocken, Pn., eleven, and has been doing that very thing for several weeks, Mackert had no grievance against the local management anve that he could make more pioney elsewhere.

You fought your way down Har-Barnes took the middle of the campaign and Hagen the closing stages. None of the three could stand the and ran through dizziness of the far heights for any extended stretch.

Call for Space.

to enthusiasts out West. Bing just a nomad I hold no brief—a new and snappy line, ch, what?—for any section. Having watched football for some years in this, my native land, I have come to the following dispassionate conclusion: Highdispassionate conclusion: Highclass Western teams carry more punch, versatility and speed, when attacking, than is shown by the best teams the East produces. Again —incredible as it may seem, with all the talk about fundamental football in the East produce was set fast and will be mainting the East. men through a stiff scrimmage. The coming Sunday both of these elevens pace was set fast and will be mainted until turkey day is here. Despite the reverses of the present season the Thanksgiving game is looked forward to with hope of succorn belt than is visible to the naked eye in the lair of the codfish and the lamented shad. To sum up, when it comes to modern footballs the rough tribe of the cherished Bresson from being counted as disasting for the season from being counted as disasting forming Sunday both of these elevens will be seen in action against strong trible seen in action against str member also that Notre Dame has been beaten this season by another Western team. "The leading conference eleven," Ray calls it. Mebbe so, and mebbe hot. At any rate, Chicago didn't show half her stuff while she toyed with Princeton, and everything she had wasn't enough against Ohio State.

JOHN TAINTER FOOTE.

of play, had possession of the ball most of the time, and at different stages they managed to plow big holes in the varsity line. The big bects to gain the decision.

Hockland expects to put hard game against the Mot team, however, braced up noby in the pinches, and altogether the work of the regulars was satisfactory to the coaches.

Cruise was again in the line-up at fullback, in place of Hamilton, PINEHURST, N. C. No.

Out on the coast Ty Cobb is still leading such talent as Hornsby and Sisler. The Tiger mandarin glides along in the immediate neighborhood of 410, even at his advanced baseball age. A few rivals can appreciate what the Old Man must have been as a kid around twenty-five or twenty-six. Next spring will start him out upon his eighteenth major league campaign, with youth struggling to hold his eternal pace. The Navy will manage to struggle

The Navy will manage to struggle along, whatever the disarmament program, as long as the disarmers don't take away those seven backfield stars, plus King and Bolles, until after the Army game.

Brickley, Hardwick, Mahan and Casey are gone. But Yale isn't tak-ing "From Buell to Fitts" any too lightly as a meaningless phrase.

ST. PAUL QUINTET OFF TO GOOD START

The St. Paul's Episcopal Church, won the first game of their schedule in the Sunday School Basketball League in the men's symnasium of the Y. M. C. A., by defeating the Fourth Presbyterian Church quintet by a large score. They have also defeated the Emmanon A. C. by a score of 31 to 20. The St. Pauls would like to arrange games with other quints in the District and Manager Elmer Fletcher can be reached at West 1333 or by mall at 3646 N street northwest. Tonight the club will hold its second dance of the season in Gymnasium Hall, $117 Twenty-third street northwest. The St. Paul Athletic Club of

READY FOR AHEARN.

YOUNG BOWEN.

Here is the District feather-weight star who will hook up with Goldle Ahearn in a ten-round mill at Ardmore tomor-row night. It will be a tough test for the local scrapper, as Ahearn packs a wicked south-paw punch with which he mowed down a lot of good boys in the army. Frankie Mann is promoting the scrap, the first one in these parts in some football success against George saber and epec contests will also count as a touch against the re-Washington University Thanksgivwith the news that Bobby Denault. and the epee bouts on Saturday will speedy halfback, may be back in the both begin at 8:30. The two teams will then move on to New York to game by that time. Denault, wearing the Maroon and Red last year, the ballroom Dear Grant-Gimme space, gimme dug a niche in the football hall of Monday night. space! I require it after digestin an fame when he ran 95 yards for says: "Some football enthusiasts out West harbor the mistaken impression that just because Chicago beat Princeton when Princeton was not ing suffered a fractional form."

C. U. Hopes to End Otherwise Disastrous Season With Hatchetite Victory.

SANDLOT TEAMS

Washington contest. Bobby has been out of the game this year, hav. Princeton when Princeton was not ing suffered a fractured jaw in pracat her best, they can produce better tice about the middle of September teams than we can."

He wants to get back into battle cams than we can."

Correct, absolutely; but the harnow, and Coach Haery Robb would the rough tribe of the cherished R season from being counted as disas-

the rough tribe of the cherished R has it over cultured broad-A-ers like a tent.

Why always peer through a fog? One writer added this: "In beating the Army, Notre Dame looked like a finished machine while the cadets played very raggedly"

The cadets weren't so darned ragged against Yale. Several football hounds who saw the game told me the latter was lucky to win. Let me whisper in your ear; the Ell's work would look, just as tattered and torn against the slashing Western attack which the Army met last Saturday. Please to remember also that Notre Dame has been beaten this saason by another Western team. "The leading con-ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 16.—Secret practice was again the order of things at the Naval Academy today. things at the Naval Academy today, and according to the coaches the varsity outfit showed up poorly. There was a lengthy scrimmage during the major portion of which

Cruise was again in the line-up at fullback, in place of Hamilton, further indicating that the coaches are undecided at least as to two of the positions. The other is left tackle, in which point Wiedorn has are undecided at least as to two of the positions. The other is left tackle, in which point Wiedorn has replaced Bolles, a veteran of two seasons, and the results of this week's work probably will be the basis in the final selections for the berths. Thousands of tickets for the mail today. Navy's supply has long since been exhausted, and many persons who have made applications will, therefore, be disapplications will, therefore, be disapplications will, therefore, be disapplied as opponents in two fourties of two played as opponents in two fourties of the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the morning and played as opponents in two fourties of two played as opponents in two fourties of the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the afternoon. Hagen was paired with Irving S. Robeson, of Rochester, for the approaching the mail today. Navy's supply has long since been exhausted, and matches during the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the morning and played as opponents in two fourties of two played as opponents in two fourties of the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the afternoon. Hagen was paired with Irving S. Robeson, of Rochester, for the approaching functions and the results of the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the afternoon. Hagen was paired with Irving S. Robeson, of Rochester, for the approaching the day and finished in each case with identical rounds, each taking 75 in the fourties of the fourties of

Dartmouth Eleven

we were taught in our early youth that one must learn to say "No." This habit has become fixed lately as the multitude at large desires to know whether we can't dig up two or three Army-Navy game tickets. Why are most of our stadiums, amphitheaters, coliseums and arenas only large enough to accommodate one-fourth of the seat seekers?

Brickley. Hardwick, Mahan and Casey are gone. But Yale isn't tak-casey are gone gone. But Yale isn't tak-casey are gone. But Yale isn' of the Canadians.

So impressive was the play of their opponents that the Syracuse coaches immediately decided to adopt some of the methods of the Northern men which were particularly suitable for use in the intercollegiate. Against Colgate last Saturday snow sleet and a see of mud prevented sleet and a sea of mud prevented the use of these open plays, but given a dry field at the Polo Grounds, these tactics will be used against Dartmouth in the final game of the

BRITISH AND U.S. FENCERS COMPETE HERE THIS WEEK

International Title to Be Decided in Bouts at Racquet Club.

Members of the American and British fencing teams which meet omorrow and Saturday nights at the Racquet Club in the first annual competition for the Col. Robert M. Thompson trophy, will arrive in this city tonight on the Congressional limited. The majority of the swordsmen will put up at the Racquet Club.

The three Washington members of the American team, Majs. Honeycott, Rayner and Sears, have been working out nightly at the Rac-quet Club with Professor F. Darrieulat, who was maitre d'armes of the American Olympic fencing squad last year, and who has been acting as coach of the army mem-bers of this year's American team. Plans are Formed.

It has been decided that the team winning the greatest number of bouts with all three wear pons, folls, epee and sabers, will be adjudged the victor in the in-ternational contest. The decision was reached following a conference in New York between Henry Breckenridge of the New York Fencers Club, acting for team cap-tain. Francis Honeycutt, and Col. Ronald B. Campbell, D. S. O., cap-tain of the British team.

class. In the event of a tie in the natter of bouts won, a decision will be reached on the basis of matches at 26 New York avenue or by phone won by each country. If there is at Franklin 5019. still a tie, the tournament will be decided on a basis of touches re-corded against each team with all three weapons.

To Observe Olympic Rules. In general, Olympic fencing rules will be observed. The bouts will be contested on a 45-foot strip. In the bouts with the folls, one tim Hopes for Catholic University Three times off the strip in the treating fencer.

foils bouts Friday night settle the supremacy with sabres in

TO MEET SUNDAY

Mohawks to Meet Brookland; Knicks Will Battle Mercury.

Sandlot football is coming into its own as the season begins to fade. Last Sunday the Mohawks and ers got down to real work yester-day afternoon. Coach Robb put the men through a stiff scrimmage. The coming Sunday both of these elevens

The scrap between the Mercuries and the Knicks will be watched with interest, as the former team has been doing great work all season. and expects to challenge the Mo-JOB FOR MIDDIES hawks if they take a fall out of the Georgetown boys. Whether they will attain that ambition, howworkout will be on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. It is announced that this game will begin at 3 o'clock. Brookland expects to put up a hard game against the Mohawks.

WITH STANDIFER

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 16.— Waiter Hagen and Fred McLeod ar-rived at Pinehurst this morning and Dartmouth Eleven

Adopts Rugby Style

Adopts Rugby Style afternoon, and went around this afternoon in 70, which included a 33 for the first nine holes. Today's professional entries for the big tournament included Wilfred Reid and Clarence Hackney. Clarence Hackney.

> SUITS & O'COATS MAX NEEDLE & CO.

FOR BARGAINS CLOTHING OF QUALITY KLEIN'S KORNER

Bowle Races

November 15th to 26th Inclusive Special trains leave Columbia station 12:00 m., 12:15, 12:30 and

Admission to Grandstand, $1.65 Including government tax FIRST RACE, 1:15 P. M.

Washington is paying a great deal of attention to DRESS just now:-

As Mr. H. G. Wells,

the renowned English novelist, says: "Last time I came to America, I found myself saying. 'I bought a silk hat and morning coat and never wore them once. Now everybody seems to be wearing a morning coat and a silk hat."

Thank you, Mr. Wells-

If you left them home this time, we can take care of you with the best in America.

Society Brand Clothes

Dobbs silk hats

Manhattan shirts Inferwoven hose

The Hecht Co.

GRID GAMES WANTED.

Owing to a cancellation, the In-Four fencers will compete for each country with each weapon, providing a total of sixteen bouts in each teams in the 148 pound class. Manager E. M. Reidy can be reached > for Thanksgiving Day with fast 140pound teams of the District. Manager William Duke can be reached at North 2657.

Aurora A. C. wants games with at Nor any 135-pound elevens in the Dis- 7 p m. Aurora A. C. wants games with

The Unknown eleven wants games The Unknown eleven wants games with teams in the 125-pound class, especially the Speedway Juniors. The following players are requested to report for practice Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock: Glasscock, MacCartee, Smith. Opitz, Main, Van Horn, Tolson, Omohundro, Morgan, McCopard Hollis, Manager, Smith, each and Hollis. Manager Smith can b reached at Franklin 2903

The Panther eleven defeated the The Collegiate Preps, who have tied the Mount Rainier Midgets and defeated the Reservoir A. C., want to arrange Sunday games and one to hear from all 85 and 90-pound northwest

The Langdon A. C. eleven wants game for Sunday and also for Thanksgiving Day on their field. Manager Fitzgerald can be reached

The gallantry with which many a car struggles up a hill thrills you with pleasure, until you have topped a hill in the Cadillacthen it dawns upon you that you have not known what hill mastery really means.

> See our exhibit at the Closed Car Salon, space No. 25.

The Washington Cadillac Company 1138-40 Connecticut Avenue

$8.79

Army-Navy Game

Saturday, November 26 Tickets good going on all afternoon and night trains Friday. November 25, all morning trains Saturday, November 26. Good returning leaving New York on all trains from noon Saturday to and including 1:00 A. M. Monday, November 28.

All Baltimore & Ohio Trains Use

PENNSYLVANIA STATION 7th Avenue and 32nd Street

Convenient to the 6th and 0th Avenue Elevated Lines direct to Polo Grounds.

For details of service apply at-City Ticket Office, 13th and F Streets N. W. Union Station, Massachusetts and Delaware Aves.

W. V. SHIPLEY. Division Passenger Agent.
13th and F Streets N. W.

Baltimore & Ohio

(Round Trip, Including War Tax)

NEW YORK